

Without using any word or phrase more than once, fill in the blanks for all five sections to help you tell your story.

I am Sara, I come from a family of women.

I've been to college and travel. The camera is my home.

I think moments are too precious to let go without a snapshot.

I am a phototographer, I come from being a mom.

I've been to broken bones and birthday cakes. Capturing the moment is my home.

I believe every picture tells a story.

I am creative, I come from freedom of expression.

I've been to art class and Youtube. Perfecting my skill is my home.

I see more in every photo than the image it captures.

I am willing to try, I come from failures.

I've been to disappointing moments and images worthy of a scale. A photo is my home.

I know my pictures capture the heart and emotions of that moment in time.

I am Sara, I come from behind the lens.

I've been to the past you are and the places you are yet to be. Showing you all that is is my home.

I am a highly skilled photographer who people respect and hire to capture those most important moments for work or pleasure.

